

Rules for Use of Roche Trade-marks in Vendor Advertising or Publications

Suppliers are not permitted to use the names, logos or trademarks of Roche or any other member of the Roche Group of companies (including Genentech), or otherwise refer to Roche or any of its affiliates, in publicity or advertising without Roche's prior written consent.

Unless otherwise agreed to by Roche, any proposed publication or materials written by Supplier as part of the services to Roche or that relates to services provided to Roche must be reviewed and approved in writing by Roche prior to submission for publication.

Updated October 23, 2017

Author(s): JDB